

Workers' Journey to Good Health and Well-being

Early detection of prevalent health conditions (anemia, hypertension, diabetes, vision, lung conditions, and mental health)

1

Workers and their family members receive treatment via telecare

2

Workers and their family members receive mental health counselling

3

4

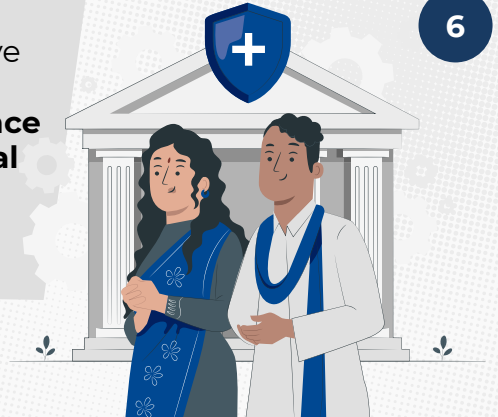

Workers are referred to referral hospital/ local public health system for advanced care

Workers receive preventive health education

5

Workers receive Government Health Insurance and other social protections

6

Workers with chronic health issues are followed up with

7

Workers receive empathetic care and support from the factory management at their workplaces (hygiene, nutritious food, safety, security and so on)

8